Xenia Police Division Captain Scott Anger Retires

Xenia, Ohio (January 26, 2017) Xenia Police Division Captain Scott Anger will retire from the Xenia Police Division (XPD) January 27, 2017.

Captain Anger is a graduate of Xenia High School. Following high school, he served in the Ohio Army National Guard Infantry Division for six (6) years. He graduated with an Associate's Degree in Criminal Justice from Clark State Community College and received his Peace Officer certification from the Ohio Peace Officer Academy. He continued his education at Capital University graduating with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Liberal Professional Studies with a concentration in criminal justice and psychology. During the course of his career he also graduated from Northwestern University School of Police Staff and Command and the FBI National Academy Session #235.

Captain Anger began his career with the Xenia Police Division on April 6, 1987, when he was hired as a full-time officer. He accepted many specialized assignments during his career with XPD. Captain Anger served as the D.A.R.E. Officer for two years, and as a detective in Criminal Investigation Section, field training officer, evidence technician, B.A.C. operator, and member of the division's Special Weapons and Tactics Team (S.W.A.T) for fifteen years.

On October 26, 1997, Anger was promoted to Police Sergeant where he served for nearly 6 years before his promotion to Police Captain in June 2003. As Captain, Anger served most of his time as the commander of the Special Services Section which included the Criminal Investigation Section, the D.A.R.E. Program, School Resource Officer, Domestic Violence Unit, and the detective assigned to the Greene County Agency for Combine Enforcement (A.C.E.). He also spent time as the commander of the division's Patrol Operations Section and as commander of the Administrative Section. Over the course of his career Captain Anger represented the Xenia Police Division throughout the county on several boards and commissions. He is currently serving his sixth year on the Mental Health and Recovery Board of Clark, Greene and Madison Counties.

Captain Anger received many commendations recognizing his professional conduct and performance throughout his career. Anger was the recipient of the Casey Elliott Memorial "City's Finest” award in 1995 and the Distinguished Service award in 2003 and 2009 in recognition of his outstanding acts of heroism and bravery. He received several Leadership awards with the most recent in 2016 for his patience, guidance and leadership qualities that enabled his team to develop their skills and confidence to handle serious felony level cases.

Captain Scott Anger and his wife, Lori, have been married for nearly thirty (30) years and have two adult children.

Xenia Police Division Chief Donald Person stated “Captain Anger represents what’s best in law enforcement today. Scott is a compassionate individual who cares deeply for this community and has shown that commitment time and time again. Scott is one of the best investigators and Criminal Investigations Commander that I have known. While capable people will step up to fill his position, it will be some time before they can replace the void he leaves behind. I want to personally thank Captain Anger for the almost 30 years of dedicated service he has provided to the Xenia Police Division.”
